Distribution Requirements
(45 credits required)

Associate in Business - Direct Transfer Agreement students must distribute at least 45 credits in the areas of the humanities, social science, and science (15 credits each). Shaped by a shared concern for academic breadth and depth, distribution courses lay a foundation for college or university education, grounding further work in four-year transfer institutions. Beyond 45 credits, these courses may also be used to fulfill general elective requirements.

Social Science (15 credits)

A total of fifteen (15) credits is required (10 credits in Economics and 5 credits selected from Associate in Arts distribution areas). See note (2) for WSU and UW Tacoma requirements on following page.

- any other college-level courses numbered 100 or higher.

See note (5)

Although not all courses may transfer independently, they may be acceptable as part of Grays Harbor College's transfer arrangements at four-year institutions. They may constitute, however, no more than ten credits in any degree program. Physical education requirement credits cannot be used as electives.

Business School Admission

Admission to Washington public baccalaureate Schools of Business is not guaranteed to students holding an Associate in Business - DTA Degree. It is strongly recommended that students contact the baccalaureate-granting business school early in their Associate in Business - DTA program to be advised about additional requirements (e.g., GPA) and procedures for admission.

Business School Admission (continued)

Please note that admission for many Business Schools is competitive, and higher grade-point averages and course grades are often required. Please check with your destination school and college. In addition, the minimum grade for business courses is a 2.0. These courses are denoted by an asterisk (*). UW Bothell requires a minimum of 2.0 in all prerequisite courses.

Specific University Information

For program planning purposes, students are advised that the lower-division requirements for individual Washington public university business schools may vary.

Notes

- To meet the current EWU requirements, the second English Composition course must be equivalent to EWU's English 201-College Composition: Analysis, Research, and Documentation
- Students intending the international business major should consult their potential transfer institution regarding the level of world language required for admission to the major. 5 credits in world languages may apply to the Humanities requirement.
- Students intending the manufacturing management major at WWU should consult WWU regarding the selection of natural science courses required for admission to the major.
- Regarding Business Law or Introduction to Law - these are two distinct subject areas with minimal (approximately 20 percent) content overlap. University with a requirement Course Equivalent to: University of Washington (all campuses) Introduction to Law (MGMT 200) EWU, CWU, WSU (all campuses), WWU, Gonzaga, SMU, SPU Business Law. The following institutions do not require a lower division Business Law course and agree to accept the course taken as part of this degree as a lower division elective, but generally not as an equivalent to the course required at the upper division: Heritage, PLU, SU, and Walla Walla College.
- 4 institutions have requirements for admission to the major that go beyond those specified above that students can meet by careful selection of the elective course: University Course Equivalent to WSU (all campuses): Management Information Systems MIS 250
Gonzaga: Management Information Systems BMIS 235
PLU: computer applications CSCE 120, either an equivalent course or skills test
SPU: Spreadsheets BUS 1700, either an equivalent course or skill test.
